HOLIDAY CATALOGUE

OF

FINE BOOKS,

ESPECIALLY ADAPTED FOR

Christmas and New Year Gifts,

FOR THE MOST PART,

HANDSOMELY ILLUSTRATED AND ELEGANTLY BOUND,

AND FOR SALE, AT VERY LOW PRICES,

BY GEORGE S. APPLETON,

164 CHESTNUT STREET, CORNER OF SEVENTH,

(SWAIM'S BUILDINGS,)

PHILADELPHIA.

Recently Published, and may be had Gratis on Application, a Catalogue of Books on Various Subjects, including History, Biography, Poetry, and the Drama, Novels and Tales, Political Economy, Angling, Shooting, Sporting, &c., &c.

This Catalogue of handsomely Illustrated and elegantly Bound Books, is put forth more especially, to aid intending purchasers in making a selection of such Works as may be most suitable for the purposes intended by Gift-Books.

This List will be found to contain the largest and most splendid assortment of Fine Books, which have ever been offered in this City. Embracing as it does, Annuals in every conceivable variety—Illuminated Works in Carved Bindings—Standard Books of History, Biography and Theology, in the most Substantial Bindings—and Religious Souvenirs, of the most appropriate matériel, in the most recherche bindings, and Illustrated in the best style of the present age—the whole forming a Galaxy of Literary and Artistic Talent, not to be surpassed—and what is perhaps of greater importance, tending to refine the taste; elevate the intellect; and give a nobler vent to the moral being.

To Parents who are seeking Books for their Children, I would say, that I have hundreds of volumes of the most interesting and instructive character, which it has been impossible to enumerate within the limits of this catalogue. On inspection, they will be found to be the prettiest, pleasantest, and most profitable sources of amusement for the long winter evenings—more especially so, as they are of a character which it is hoped will allure to virtue and repel from vice.

The Collection of Bibles and Prayer Books, is the most Varied and Splendid to be found, ranging in size from the priestly folio to the diminutive duodecimo, and in styles of binding, from common sheep to the costly velvets, with gold corners, rims, and clasps.

In the matter of Prices, it may be as well to state, that with such a variety of styles of binding and illustration, it would have been extremely difficult to affix them in all cases, without the risk of perplexing the reader. Let it suffice to observe, that other conditions being equal, APPLETON'S PRICES will be found extremely low, varying from 5 to 50 per cent. below the usual charges.

The Extra Bound Books, have all been executed by Mr. J. T. Altemus, whose reputation as a first-rate workman, is a sufficient guarantee for their elegance and stability.

In conclusion, I would urge upon my Friends the propriety of making early purchases, in order to insure a participation in this "Feast of Reason," which will assuredly be productive of a "Flow of Soul," and greatly conducive to the making of a
